BBarters™

Object Pronouns Revision

Les Pronoms Toniques

Français	English
moi	me
toi	you
lui	him
elle	her
soi	one / oneself
nous	us
vous	you (formal)/ you all
eux	them (m)
elles	them (f)

Usage of Pronoms Toniques

To add extra emphasis to the subject

Français	English
Lui, c'est un grand musicien !	Him, he is a great musician!
Eux, ils aiment faire la fête tous les week-ends.	Them, they like partying every weekend.
Nous, nous venons d'Inde !	Us, we are from India!

To replace the subject in the sentence if it is repeated multiple times

Français	English
Je viens de trouver un bon dentiste. Alors, nous allons chez lui.	I just found a good dentist. So, we are going to him.
Régine est votre collègue et vous allez travailler avec elle.	Regina is your colleague and you are going to work with her.

After Prepositions

Français	English
Elle parle toujours de lui.	She is always speaking about him.
Je ne peux pas vivre sans toi.	I can't live without you.
Chacun pour soi.	Every man for himself.

With the preposition chez (at someone's house/ place they can be frequently found at)

Français	English
Je vais aller chez elle.	I'm going to her place.
Ses parents nous invitent chez eux.	His parents are inviting us to their place.
Faites comme chez vous.	Make yourself/ yourselves at home.
Shubham va souvent chez la dentiste.	Shubham often goes to the dentist.

During Comparisons

Français	English
Elle est plus belle que nous.	She is more beautiful than us.
Il a plus de chance que vous.	He's more lucky than you.
Tu apprends aussi vite que moi.	You learn as fast as me.

Direct Objects

A noun phrase indicating a person/ thing that is the recipient of the action of a verb

- Soha aime SRK.
- JM deteste Ivana.
- Elle porte un pull noir.

Characteristics of direct objects

- directly follow the verb (not preceded by prepositions)
- used with transitive verbs
- are the people or things in a sentence that receive the action of the verb
- cannot be removed without altering the meaning of the sentence
- can always be found by asking "Whom?" or "What?"

Direct Object Pronouns

To avoid repetitions of the direct object, we have direct object pronouns. They are known as complement objet direct (COD) in french.

Français	English
me/ m' (before a vowel and mute h)	me (people)
te/ t' (before a vowel and mute h)	you (people)
le/ l' (before a vowel mute h)	him/ it (masculine person/ thing)
la/ l' (before a vowel mute h)	her/ it (feminine person/ thing)
nous	us (people)
vous	you (all) (plural and formal)
les	them (people and things, masc or feminine)

Français	English
Je vois Mathieu. Je le vois.	I see Mathew. I see him.
Je t'aime beaucoup.	I love you a lot.
Elle met ses chaussures. Elle les met.	She is putting her shoes on. She is putting them on.
Il nous remercie. Il vous remercie.	He is thanking us. He thanks you (all).
Kaustubh: Soha déteste toi et ta copine. Shubham: Non, pas du tout. Elle nous aime bien.	Kaustubh: Soha hates you and your gf. Shubham: No, not at all. She likes us.
Kaustubh: Soha déteste moi et ma copine. Shubham: Non, pas du tout. Elle vous aime bien.	Kaustubh: Soha hates me and my girlfriend. Shubham: No, not at all. She likes you.

Indirect Objects

These objects do not directly follow the verb, there is a preposition before them.
verb + preposition + indirect object, they are known as complèment objet indirect (COI).

- Je vais envoyer un courriel à Shubham.
- Elle écrit une lettre à sa mère.
- Il se souvient bien de son grand-père.
- Nous parlons souvent de Donald Trump.

Indirect Object Pronouns

Pronouns that replace the Indirect Objects to avoid repetition. The indirect object pronoun replaces only indirect animate objects (people, animals). In order to avoid confusion it is advised to use them only with indirect objects which follow the preposition “à”.

Français	English
me / m’ (before a vowel and mute h)	me
te / t’ (before a vowel and mute h)	you lui	him, her
nous	we
vous	you (plural/ formal)
leur	them (masc and fem)

Français	English
Je lis à mes enfants chaque soir.. Je leur lis chaque soir.	I read to my children every night. I read to them every night.
Elle vous envoie un cadeau.	She is sending you a gift.
Il donne des fleurs à son amie. Il lui donne des fleurs.	He is giving flowers to his friend. He is giving her flowers.

But with two verbs in a sentence it precedes the infinitive (secondary verb) and not the primary (conjugated) verb

Français	English
Elle va leur envoyer un courriel.	She is going to send them an email.
Nous pouvons lui parler de ce projet.	We can talk to him about this project.
Je vais te montrer ma nouvelle voiture.	I’m going to show you my new car.

Neuter Object Pronoun - Le

There are instances where the object to be talked about is a whole idea, a phrase. In that case, we cannot determine its gender. To avoid repetition in such cases, we use le.

Characteristics of Neuter Object Pronouns

- Formal
- Usually written
- Impersonal, neuter, invariable

Français	English
Tu adores faire la cuisine ? Oui, j'adore ça/cela. Oui, je l'adore.	Do you like cooking? Yes, I like that. Yes, I like it.
Qui fait la lessive ? Sophie fait ça/cela. Sophie le fait.	Who did the laundry? Sophie did that. Sophie did it.
Apprendre le français n'est pas facile, tu comprends ? Oui, je comprends ça/cela. Oui, je le comprends.	Learning french is not easy, you understand ? Yes. I understand that. Yes, I understand it.

Adverbial Pronouns (Y, En)

Pronoun Y /ee/

The adverbial pronoun "Y" replaces prepositions + noun of place

- Y often replaces geographical prepositions such as à, en, dans, sur, chez, devant (except de) and a noun of place
- It appears before the verb except in imperative form
- Y usually means "there" when it replaces the noun of place.

Français	English
Je vais à Paris lundi. J'y vais lundi.	I'm going to Paris on Monday. I'm going there on Monday.
Elle va en France. Elle y va.	She is going to France. She is going there.
Il est dans le salon. Il y est.	He is in the living room. He is there.
Je mets le sac sur la table. J'y mets le sac.	I'm putting the bag on the table. I'm putting the bag there.
La machine est chez le dentiste. La machine y est.	The machine is at the dentist's place. The machine is there.
Elle attend au bout du queue. Elle y attend.	She is waiting at the end of the line/ queue. She's waiting there.

Note: Y cannot replace a phrase beginning with preposition de (from), even if the noun following ut indicates place, the adverbial pronoun “en” is used in that case.

Used in sentences with verbs + à + inanimate indirect objects (things/ ideas)

- Y is also used to replace inanimate indirect objects preceded by à
- Y is translated to “it” or “them” and is placed before the verb.

Français	English
Il n'obéit pas aux lois. Il n’y obeit pas.	He doesn’t follow the laws. He doesn’t follow them.
Je vais assister au cours demain. Je vais y assister demain.	I am going to attend class tomorrow. I am going to attend it tomorrow.

Note: Difference between “ à + qqn ” and “à + qqch”

Français	English
J’écris souvent à mon frère. Je lui écris souvent.	I write to my brothers often. I write to them often.
Elle pense à ses vacances. Elle y pense.	She thinks about her vacations. She thinks about them.

Expressions with the adverbial pronoun “y”

Français	English
Allons-y !	Let’s go !
On y va !	Let’s go/ let’s do it!
Il y a	there is/ there are.
Vas-y !	Go ahead/ go there!

Pronoun EN

When to use the adverbial pronoun “En”?

- It replaces many things: preposition de + nouns of place, indefinite/partitive articles, expression of quantities, the inanimate indirect object after preposition de
- It is placed before the verb, except in Imperative mood (commands)
- Translation varies based on the usage

To replace preposition de (from) + noun of place

Français	English
Elle rentre du Japon. Elle en revient.	She is coming back home from Japan. She is coming back from there.
Nous arrivons de Bretagne. Nous en arrivons.	We are arriving from Brittany. We arrive from there.

To replace indefinite/ partitive article + noun

Français	English
J'ai du pain. J'en ai.	I have bread. I have some.
Il cherche des idées. Il en cherche.	He is looking for ideas. He is looking for some.
Tu veux des pâtes ? Oui, j'en veux bien.	Do you want pasta? Yes, I would like some.

With Expressions of Quantity

Français	English
J'achète cinq bouteilles de bière. J'en achète cinq.	I'm buying five bottles of beer. I'm buying five of them.
Vous avez deux motos ? Oui, nous en avons deux.	You have two bikes? Yes, we have two of them.
Ils ont plusieurs voitures. Ils en ont plusieurs.	They have several cars. They have several of them.
Nous avons une fille. J'en ai une aussi.	We have a daughter. - I have one too.
J'ai quelques livres de cet auteur. - Oui, tu en as quelques-uns.	I have a few books by this author. - Yes, you have a few of them.
Elle a beaucoup d'argent. Oui, elle en a beaucoup.	She has a lot of money. - Yes, she has a lot.

En with clauses

En can also refer back to a preceding sentence or clause.

Elle est enceinte. J'en suis certain. (i.e je suis certain de cela)
She's pregnant. I'm certain of it.

Français	English
Elle parle de son voyage. Elle en parle.	She talks about her journey. She talks about it.
Elle est fière de ses accomplissements. Oui, elle en est fière.	She is proud of her achievements. Yes, she is proud of them.
Tu as besoin d'un stylo ? Oui, j'en ai besoin.	Do you need a pen? Yes, I need it.
Qu'est-ce que tu penses de cette décision ? Qu'est-ce que tu en penses ?	What do you think of this decision? What do you think about it?

In the passé composé and other compound tenses the indirect object pronoun en is placed before the auxiliary verb. Note that the past participle does not agree in gender and number with the indirect object en.

Français	English
Il a parlé de sa nouvelle idée à Théo. Il en a parlé à Théo.	He talked about his new idea to Theo. He talked about it to Theo.
Ils ont eu envie d'aller en Italie en avril. Ils en ont eu envie.	They wanted to go to Italy in April. They wanted it.
Vous avez oublié de faire les vaisselles. Vous en avez oublié.	You forgot to do the dishes. You forgot it.

Some Useful Expressions with Pronoun "En"

- J'en ai marre = I'm fed up.
- J'en ai assez = I've had enough.
- Je lui en veux = I'm mad at him/her.
- Je m'en vais = I'm leaving.
- Ne t'en fais pas = don't worry.
- J'en pince pour lui/ elle = I have a crush on him/her.

Negation + Object Pronouns

When using object pronouns (direct and indirect) with negation, you will place the pronoun(s) between ne/ n' and the conjugated verb.

ne/n' + object pronoun + verb + pas

COD : me, te, nous, vous

Français	English
Tu ne nous aimes pas.	You don't like us.
Je ne vous comprends pas.	I don't understand you (what you want to say)
Il ne m'attend pas !	He doesn't wait for me!
Non, je ne te vois pas.	No, I don't see you

COD : le, la, l', les

Français	English
Son coeur, elle ne le brise pas.	His heart, she's not breaking it.
Nous ne le détestons pas. (Kaustubh)	We don't hate him.
Je ne l'appelle pas. (Lui)	I am not calling him.
Tu ne les amènes pas aujourd'hui. (Mes livres)	You're not bringing them.

COI : me, te, nous, vous

Français	English
Je ne te parle pas.	I'm not talking to you.
Elle ne vous lit pas le roman aujourd'hui.	She's not reading you the book today. (Children)
Il ne nous donne pas de bonnes notes.	He's not giving us good grades.
Ma mère ne m'achète pas une robe.	My mother isn't buying me a dress.

COI : lui, leur

Français	English
Je ne lui donne pas mon cœur.	I'm not giving him my heart.
Elle ne leur parle pas du tout !	She's not talking to them at all!
Je ne vais pas t'envoyer mes photos.	I am not sending you my photos.

Pronom EN, Y

Français	English
Tu veux du pain ? Non, je n'en veux pas.	Do you want some bread ? I don't want any.
J'ai besoin de jus. Nous n'en avons pas.	I need some juice. We don't have it/any.
Nous voulons parler de cette décision. Je n'en parle pas.	We want to talk about this decision. I am not talking about it.
Mon sac n'y est pas.	My sac isn't there.
Nous devons penser à notre carrière. Je n'y pense pas. (à ma carrière)	We must think about our careers. I'm not thinking about it.

Negation + Object pronouns with irregular verbs like pouvoir, vouloir, devoir

Ne + primary verb + pas + object pronoun + action verb (infinitive)

Français	English
Je ne veux pas la voir !	I don't want to see her !
Elle ne peut pas leur aider.	She cannot help them.
Vous ne devez pas les rencontrer aujourd'hui.	You don't have to meet them today.
Je ne veux pas lui parler.	I don't want to talk to him/ her.
Il ne veut pas en mettre dans le placard.	He doesn't want to put it in the cupboard.
Je ne peux pas y aller ce samedi.	I cannot go there this Saturday.

Imperative + Object Pronouns

POD : Direct Object Pronouns come after the verb in the imperative mood and are joined by a “hyphen” (-)

Français	English
Arrête-le !	Stop him!
Attend-la !	Wait for her!
Nourrissez-les pour moi, s’il vous plaît.	Feed them for me, please. (my kids)

*When making affirmative commands, we attach pronouns directly to the end of the verb and connect them with a hyphen. The pronouns Me(m’) and Te(t’) become Moi and Toi when they come after the imperative.

Français	English
Écoute-moi !	Listen to me!
Appelle-moi !	Call me!
Asseyez-vous.	Sit down.
Dépêche-toi !	Hurry up!
Laissez-nous parler !	Let us speak!
Laisse-moi partir ou je vais te décapiter.	Let me go or I’ll decapitate you.

EN, Y

All verbs ending in ER , the verb ALLER , and verbs like OUVRIR drop the final S in the TU form except before the pronouns Y and EN.

Français	English
N’en mangez pas !	Don’t eat it!
Allons-y !	Let’s go (there)!
Vas-y.	Go ahead.
Prenez-en trois.	Take three of them. (the tablets)
J'ai envie de manger des tamarins. Alors, achètes-en !	I want to eat some tamarind. Then, buy some!
Regardes-y !	Look in there.
Ouvres-en !	Open some! (bottles/ coffins/ boxes)

Note: Only when using “en” with the Imperative form, we write the “s” in the conjugation of “tu”.

Neutral Object Pronouns with Imperative

Français	English
Faites-le !	Do it!
Finis cela, s’il te plaît !	Finish that, please!
Faisons ça demain.	Let’s do it tomorrow.

Interrogative + Object Pronouns

For intonation and est-ce que from questions the object pronouns follow the same order i.e before the verb.

Intonation/Est-ce que + POD

Français	English
On la rencontre ?	Are we meeting her?
Vous regardez le film ? Vous le regardez ?	Are you watching the movie? Are you watching it?
Tu les connais ?	Do you know them?
Est-ce que vous la connaissez ?	Do you know her
Est-ce que vous regardez le film ? Est-ce que vous le regardez ?	Are you watching the movie? Are you watching it?

The Inversion method

The object pronoun comes before the inverted verb.

COD : me, te, le, la, nous, vous, les

Français	English
M'appelez-vous pour la réunion ?	Is she calling me?
Le voyez-vous ?	Do you see him?
Nous aidez-vous ?	Are you helping us?

Regardez-vous le film ? Le regardez- vous ?	Are you watching the movie? Are you watching it?

COI : me, te, lui, nous, vous, leur

Français	English
Vous parlez à Donald ? Vous lui parlez ?	Are you talking to Donald? You talk to him?
Est-ce que vous téléphonez à Donald ? Est-ce que vous lui téléphonez ?	Are you calling Donald? Are you calling him?
Parlez-vous à Donald ? Lui parlez-vous ?	Are you talking to Donald? Are you talking to him?

Pronoun Y + Interrogative (Intonation/ Est-ce que / Inversion)

Français	English
Tu vas à l'école ? Tu y vas ?	Are you going to school? You're going there?
Qu'est-ce que tu mets dans cette boîte ? Qu'est-ce que tu y mets ? J'y mets mes bijoux.	What do you put in the box? What do you put in it? I put my jewelry there.
Y a-t-il une station de métro à proximité ?	Is there a metro station nearby?
Comment allez-vous à la plage ? Comment y allez-vous ?	How are you going to the beach? How are you going there?

Pronoun EN + Interrogative (Intonation/ Est-ce que/ Inversion)

Français	English
Vous sortez du restaurant ? Vous en sortez ?	Are you coming out of the restaurant? Are you leaving (coming) from there?
Est-ce qu'il vient de la piscine ? Est-ce qu'il en vient ?	Is he coming from the pool? Is he coming from there?
Avez-vous peur de l'échec ? En avez-vous peur ?	Are you afraid of failure? Are you afraid of it (that)?
Parlez-vous de ce livre ? En parlez-vous ?	Are you talking about this book? Are you talking about it?

Pronominals + Direct Object Pronouns

In case of pronominal verbs followed by direct objects, in order to avoid repetition you can replace the direct object with a pronoun. It will come just before the conjugated verb.

Subject + Reflexive pronoun + Direct Object Pronoun + Verb

Français	English
Je me coupe les cheveux. Je me les coupe tous les mois.	I cut my hair. I cut them every month.
Il se lave les mains tous les jours. Il se les lave tous les jours.	He washes his hands every day. He washes them every day.
Tu te brosses les dents tous les matins. Tu te les brosses tous les matins.	You brush your teeth every morning. You brush them every morning.
Je me brosse les dents. Je me les brosse.	I'm brushing my teeth. I'm brushing them.

Order of Object Pronouns

Me,te,nous,vous -> le, la, les -> lui,leur -> y -> en

Note: If the direct and indirect pronouns in the third person are combined, the direct object pronoun comes first.

Français	English
Il donne un cadeau à sa sœur. Il le donne à sa sœur. Il le lui donne.	He is giving a gift to his sister. He gave it to her sister. He is giving it to her.
J'envoie la lettre au rédacteur. Je l'envoie au rédacteur. Je la lui envoie.	I sent the letter to the editor. I sent it to the editor. I sent it to her.

Agreement of Past Participle with Direct Object

In case of compound tenses such as: passeé composé, plus-que-parfait, past conditional, futur anterieur etc. the past participle must agree with the number and gender of the direct object when it precedes the verb.

The past participle also agrees with the number and gender of the antecedent in case of relative pronouns “que” if the dependent clause has a compound tense.

Direct Object with Passé Composé

Français	English
Madame, je vous ai vue au musée.	Ma’am, I saw you at the museum.
J’ai trouvé mes lunettes sous le canapé. Je les ai trouvées sous le canapé.	I found my spectacles under the sofa. I found them under the sofa.
Elle a lavé sa voiture après deux ans. Elle l’a lavée après deux ans.	She washed her car after two years She washed it.
Est-ce que tu as ses livres ? Non, il ne me les a pas donnés.	Do you have his/her books? No, He did not give them to me.
Quelle revue Sophie a-t-elle achetée ?	Which magazine did Sophie buy?

Direct Object with Pronominal Verbs
The past participle agrees with the number and gender of the direct object.

Français	English
Elles se sont brossé les dents. Elles se les sont brossées.	They brushed their teeths. They brushed it.
Je me suis lavé les cheveux Je me les suis lavés.	I washed my hair. I washed it.
Elle ne s’est pas blessé la jambe. Elle ne se l'est pas blessée.	She did not hurt her leg during the vacation. She did not hurt it during the vacation.

Direct Object of Dependent Clause

Français	English
Marie a vendu sa voiture. C'est sa voiture que Marie a vendue .	Marie sold his car. It is her car that Marie sold.
Il a commandé une boisson qu'il n'a pas bue.	He ordered a beverage which he didn't drink.
La bague que j'ai perdue appartient à mon grand-père.	The ring that I lost belongs to my grandfather.