BBarters
Don't be users, be barters.

Commonly Used -ER Ending Verbs

Regular ER Ending Verbs

Français	English
Aimer	To like
Adorer	To love
Accepter	To accept
Chanter	To sing
Changer	To change
Chercher	To search
Danser	To dance
Demander	To ask
Donner	To give
Écouter	To listen
Étudier	To study
Gagner	To win
Habiter	To live
Jouer	To play
Oublier	To forget
Parler	To speak
Porter	To wear
Refuser	To refuse
Regarder	To watch
Travailler	To work
Trouver	To find
Visiter	To visit
Commander	To order

Present Tense Conjugation

Remove the infinitive ending and then add the endings for regular -er ending verbs in the present tense conjugation: -e, -es, -e, -ons, -ez, -ent

Parler - To talk

Je parle	Nous parlons
Tu parles	Vous parlez
Il/Elle/On parle	Ils/Elles parlent

Français	English
Combien de langues parles-tu ?	How many languages do you speak?
Elles dansent comme Shakira.	They dance like Shakira.
J'accepte votre offre généreuse.	I accept your generous offer.
Nous gagnons du temps au télétravail.	We save time in remote work.
Ils visitent la tour Eiffel ce soir.	They are visiting the Eiffel tower tonight.
Vous oubliez souvent mon anniversaire.	You often forget my birthday.
Je commande toujours du vin rouge après le dîner.	I always order red wine after dinner.
Sophie ne regarde pas de films d'horreur.	Sophie does not watch horror films.

Note: All the regular -ER ending verbs will have the same endings in present tense.

-ER Ending Verbs with Spelling & Stem Change

Some regular -er ending verbs undergo change in spelling or undergo stem change to maintain the softened pronunciation, which can be categorised as:

Verbs Ending in -cer

With verbs ending in -cer, the -c becomes -ç before the letter o while conjugating the verb in the nous form. The cedilla (ç) under the c is needed to maintain the softened pronunciation of -c.

Present Tense Conjugation

Prononcer - To pronounce

Je prononce	Nous prononçons
Tu prononces	Vous prononcez
Il/Elle/On prononce	Ils/Elles prononcent

Some other -cer ending verbs following similar changes

Français	English
Annoncer	To announce
Avancer	To move forward
Commencer	To start or to begin
Déplacer	To move
Effacer	To erase
Financer	To finance
Menacer	To threaten
Remplacer	To replace
Renoncer	To give up

Français	English
Nous avançons sans hésitation.	We move forward without hesitation.
Nous commençons à l'heure.	We are starting on time.
Nous effaçons les mauvais souvenirs.	We erase the bad memories.

Verbs ending in -ger

With verbs ending in -ger, the -g becomes -ge before the letter o while conjugating the verb in its nous form.

Present Tense Conjugation

Manger - To eat

Je mange	Nous mangeons
Tu manges	Vous mangez
Il/Elle/On mange	Ils/Elles mangent

Other common -ger ending verbs following similar change

Français	English
Changer	To change
Déménager	To relocate
Encourager	To encourage
Exiger	To demand
Mélanger	To mix
Nager	To swim
Partager	To share
Protéger	To protect
Voyager	To travel

Français	English
Nous encourageons les bonnes habitudes.	We encourage good habits.
Ma famille et moi partageons le même avis.	My family and I share the same opinion.
Nous protégeons notre corps du virus.	We are protecting our body from the virus.

Verbs ending in -e + consonant + -er

There is a change in accent with some -er ending verbs consisting of -e + consonant + -er. While conjugating such verbs, accent grave is added in all except the first-person plural (nous) and the second-person plural (vous) form.

Present Tense Conjugation

Acheter - To buy

J'achète	Nous achetons
Tu achètes	Vous achetez
Il/Elle/On achète	Ils/Elles achètent

Some other verbs following the same pattern

Français	English
Achever	To complete
Emmener	To bring
Lever	To raise
Mener	To lead
Peser	To weigh

Français	English
John achève ses études de médecine.	John is completing medical school.
Donald emmène Ivanka à la fête.	Donald brings Ivanka to the party.
Rohit Sharma mène l'équipe indienne de cricket.	Rohit Sharma leads the Indian Cricket team.

Verbs ending in -é + consonant + er

The accent aigu changes to accent grave (-é to -è) in all forms except the first-person plural (nous) and the second-person plural (vous) form.

Répéter - To repeat

Je répète.	Nous répétons
Tu répètes	Vous répétez
Il/Elle/On répète	Ils/Elles répètent

Some other verbs following similar pattern

Français	English
Célébrer	To celebrate
Considérer	To consider
Espérer	To hope
Préférer	To prefer

Français	English
Nous célébrons Noël avec joie.	We celebrate Christmas with joy.
Ils préfèrent le beau temps.	They prefer good weather.
Vous considérez le coût de la perte.	You consider the cost of loss.

Verbs ending in -e + l + -er

Some verbs ending in -e + l + - er undergo spelling change. The letter l takes two ll in all forms except the first-person plural (nous) and the second-person plural (vous) form.

Appeler - To call

J'appelle	Nous appelons
Tu appelles	Vous appelez
Il/Elle/On appelle	Ils/Elles appellent

Some other verbs following the same pattern

Français	English
Épeler	To spell
Rappeler	To remind / To call back
Renouveler	To renew

Français	English
Ils épellent les mots français correctement.	They spell French words correctly.
Nous vous rappelons les règles du jeu.	We remind you of the rules of the game.
Le propriétaire renouvelle le contrat de location de l'appartement.	The owner renews the rental contract of the apartment.