BBarters
Don't be users, be barters.

Prepositions for Geographical Places

Découvrir le monde

Continents

Français	English
L'Amérique du Nord (f)	North America
L'Amérique du Sud (f)	South America
L'Europe (f)	Europe
L'Afrique (f)	Africa
L'Asie (f)	Asia
L'Australie (f)	Australia
L'Antarctique (m)	Antarctica

Note - All continents in French are feminine, except l'Antarctique (m).

Prepositions for Continents

All the continents are feminine except Antarctica (which begins with a vowel). Hence, we use the preposition "en."

Français	English
Novak Djokovic va en Australie.	Novak Djokovic is going to Australia.
Les Alpes sont en Europe.	The Alps are in Europe.
Nous voyageons en Asie.	We are travelling to Asia.
Les ours polaires vivent en Antarctique.	Polar bears live in Antarctica.
J'habite en Amérique du Nord.	I live in North America.
Actuellement, le virus est en Afrique.	The virus is currently in Africa.
Nous allons en Amérique du Sud le mois prochain.	We are going to South America next month.

Coming from a Continent

To refer to the idea of coming from a continent, we use the preposition "de/d'

Français	English
Les champions viennent d'Asie.	The champions are from Asia.
La culture occidentale vient d'Amérique du Nord.	Western culture comes from North America.
Nous arrivons d'Europe.	We are coming from Europe.
Les pingouins viennent de l'Antarctique.	Penguins are from Antarctica.

Countries (Masculine, Feminine & Plural)

Masculine	Meaning	Feminine	Meaning
Le Brésil	Brazil	La Chine	China
Le Canada	Canada	L'Égypte(f)	Egypt
Le Japon	Japan	L'Angleterre (f)	England
Le Maroc	Morocco	La France	France
Le Venezuela	Venezuela	L'Allemagne(f)	Germany
Le Mexique	Mexico	L'Inde (f)	India
Le Cambodge	Cambodia	L'Italie(f)	Italy
Le Pakistan	Pakistan	La Suisse	Switzerland
l'Iran (m)	Iran	La Belgique	Belgium

Plural Countries

Français	English
Les États-Unis (m)	USA
Les Émirats arabes unis (m)	U.A.E
Les Philippines (f)	Philippines
Les Pays-Bas (m)	Netherlands

Prepositions for Countries

Feminine Countries

The countries ending in -e are mostly feminine. Consequently, we use "en" with them.

Français	English
J'aime les gens en France.	I love the people in France.
Tu vas en Inde ?	Are you going to India ?
Émily est en Italie pour ses vacances.	Emily is in Italy for her vacation.

Exception - The following countries are masculine:

- Le Belize
- Le Cambodge
- Le Mexique
- Le Mozambique
- Le Zimbabwe

Masculine Countries (beginning with a consonant) : au

Français	English
Vous allez au Canada dans un mois.	You are going to Canada in a month.
Mes amis sont au Japon.	My friends are in Japan.
Nous allons au Mexique pour le voyage.	We are going to Mexico for the trip.
Tu es au Mozambique ?	Are you in Mozambique ?

Masculine Countries (beginning with a vowel or a mute "h") : en

Français	English
Elle va en Iran pour son projet.	She is going to Iran for her project.
Je suis en Israël.	I am in Israel.
Nous allons en Afghanistan.	We are going to Afghanistan.
Je vais en Hongrie.	I am going to Hungary.

Plural Countries

For all plural countries, we use aux. In fact, "aux" is also used to refer to a group of islands such as the Maldives.

Français	English
Vous êtes aux États-Unis ?	Are you in the United States ?
Certains étudiants sont aux Émirats Arabes Unis.	Some students are in the United Arab Emirates.
Elle va aux Pays-Bas la semaine prochaine.	She is going to the Netherlands next week.
Ils adorent aller aux Maldives chaque année.	They love going to the Maldives every year.

Coming from a Country

Masculine Singular Countries - The preposition du is used. However, for countries beginning with a vowel or a mute "h," we use d'

Français	English
Je viens du Maroc.	I am from Morocco.
Mes amis viennent d'Iran.	My friends are coming/ are from Iran.
Les colis viennent du Japon.	The packages are coming from Japan.
Ma femme vient du Mexique.	My wife is from Mexico.

Feminine Singular Countries - "de" or d' (for countries starting with a vowel or a mute "h") is used.

Français	English
Ils arrivent de France.	They are coming from France.
Sundar Pichai vient d'Inde.	Sundar Pichai is from India.
Le virus vient de Chine.	The virus comes from China.

Plural Countries - "des" is used

Français	English
Je viens des Philippines.	I am from the Philippines.
Donald Trump vient des États-Unis.	Donald Trump is from the USA.

Français	English
Les voyageurs arrivent des Maldives.	The travellers are coming from the Maldives.
Certains d'entre nous viennent des Émirats Arabes Unis.	Some of us are from the U.A.E.

Prepositions for Cities and Towns

For most cities and towns, we use the preposition à.

Français	English
J'habite à Pune avec ma famille.	I live in Pune with my family.
Mon entretien d'embauche est à Londres.	My job interview is in London.
Émily est à Paris pour son film.	Émily is in Paris for her film.
Je vais à Marseille avec ma copine.	I am going to Marseille with my girlfriend.

For some small countries acting more as a city, we use the preposition à (without article).

Français	English
Il voyage à Haïti.	He travels to Haïti.
Nous sommes à Madagascar.	We are in Madagascar.
Vous êtes à Cuba.	You are in Cuba.

Coming from a City/Town

The preposition de/d'(for cities beginning with a vowel or a mute "h") is used.

Français	English
Ils viennent d'Amsterdam.	They are coming from Amsterdam.
Je viens de Paris.	I am from Paris.
Vada Pav vient de Mumbai.	Vada Pav originates from Mumbai.

States & Regions

The states or regions ending in -e are feminine. Some common feminine regions are:

States / Regions	English
La Californie	California
La Normandie	Normandie
La Bretagne	Brittany
L'Alsace	Alsace

Prepositions for States/ Regions

Feminine Regions - All feminine regions/ states use the preposition "en"

States / Regions	English
Kaustubh est en Bretagne.	Kaustubh is in Brittany.
Mon frère habite en Californie.	My brother lives in California.

Masculine Regions - Masculine regions employ the preposition "au"

States / Regions	English
Je suis au Texas avec ma famille.	I am in Texas with my family.
David vit au Québec.	David lives in Quebec.

Exception - Masculine regions beginning with a vowel/mute "h" take the preposition "en"

States / Regions	English
Nous allons en Ontario.	We are going to Ontario.
Ce weekend, vous allez en Illinois.	This weekend,you are going to Illinois.

Coming from a state/region

Masculine States/ Regions - To come from masculine states, use preposition du (de + le). Masculine states beginning with vowel or mute "h", use preposition (de l' = de + l')

States / Regions	English
Ils viennent de l'Ontario.	They are from Ontario.

States / Regions	English
Vous venez de l'Illinois.	You are coming from Illinois.
Elle vient du Texas.	She is from Texas.

Feminine States/ Regions - To render the idea of 'coming from a feminine region or a state,' de is used

States / Regions	English
Les mexicains viennent de Californie.	The Mexicans are coming from California.
Mon professeur vient de Bretagne.	My professor is from Brittany.
Je viens de Normandie.	I am from Normandy.

Prepositions for Geographical Locations

Locations	In	To	From
Cities	à	à	de, d'
Feminine Continents, Countries, States or Regions + Masculine Continents, Countries,States/ Regions starting with vowel or mute "h"	en	en	de, d'
All Other Masculine Countries	au	au	du
All Plurals	aux	aux	des